OneOhOne Jewelry — YouTube In-Stream Ad

Brand	OneOhOne Jewelry
Format	30-second skippable YouTube in-stream ad
Working Title	"You Feel It"
Medium	Live-action (phone filming) + AI-generated editorial segments, assembled in CapCut or Canva
Aspect Ratio	16:9

Brand & Audience

OneOhOne Jewelry is an African-rooted jewelry brand celebrating identity, femininity, and cultural pride. This ad targets women aged 18–30 who value self-expression and confidence — women who wear their culture and carry their identity with intention.

Core Message

Confidence isn't something you wear for others — it's something you feel for yourself.

The ad centres on waist beads as a symbol of that inner feeling — something deeply personal, rooted in tradition, and quietly powerful.

Visual Concept

The ad uses two distinct visual worlds. Live-action footage grounds the story in reality — raw, intimate, and personal. AI-generated segments use a rich editorial/magazine aesthetic: torn page textures, golden hour warmth, and a stylised look reminiscent of a high-fashion spread. The transition between worlds happens at the moment she puts on the waist beads — she steps into her elevated self.

Scene Breakdown

LIVE-ACTION	AI-GENERATED (Editorial/Magazine Style)	MIX

0–5s	HOOK	LIVE
	Woman stands at a mirror, expression slightly insecure. Text on screen: "Ever felt like something is missing?" Voice-over begins. Close-up of her face.
5–10s	TENSION	AI

She scrolls her phone. The screen fills the frame — AI-generated editorial imagery of confident women expressing themselves. Soft lighting, slow pacing. Magazine-style aesthetic with torn page texture.

10–18s TRANSFORMATION LIVE → AI

Live-action: close-up of waist beads touching her skin. As the camera zooms out, the visual style shifts — she steps into the editorial/magazine world. The art style transforms around her.

18–25s CONFIDENCE AI

She walks outside in the full editorial art style — golden hour warmth, rich tones, magazine-page aesthetic. Posture stronger, energy elevated. Slow motion, natural sunlight. Stylised and cinematic.

25–30s RESOLUTION + CTA AI → LIVE

Begins in editorial style. Final close-up of her face — soft smile, wearing the waist beads. Camera zooms out as the art style transitions back to live-action. Text appears: "You don't see it. You feel it." CTA: "Discover your confidence — OneOhOne Jewelry" + handle/website.

Visual & Audio Direction

Visual Style	Cinematic, warm golden hour tones. AI segments: editorial/magazine aesthetic with torn page textures and rich saturation.
Camera	Close-ups, slow motion, emotional framing (live-action). Stylised editorial composition (AI segments).
Music	Soft Afro/R&B; instrumental throughout.
Voice-over	"Confidence isn't something you wear for others. It's something you feel for yourself."

Production Approach

Live-action segments filmed on phone. AI-generated segments produced using Runway (editorial style treatment) and Luma AI (scene generation). Voice-over via ElevenLabs. Final edit assembled in CapCut with royalty-free Afro/R&B; instrumental.

Campaign Goal

Create emotional connection — make viewers feel seen and inspired to explore or purchase through the OneOhOne Jewelry website or Instagram.
